TO PUT ALIENS OUT OF BUSINESS

PROPOSED NEW LIQUOR BILL WILL DENY LIQUOR LICENSES TO ALL WHO ARE NOT CITIZENS

Senator Chillingworth is preparing a liquor bill for presentation to the legislature, that will be very strict in its provisions. One of the most material departures of the proposed bill, but which has no direct bearing upon the character of the subjects, is the fact that the bill will limit the holding of liquor licenses to citizens.

Such a change in the present law will have the effect of legislating a large number of people out of business. Many Orientals, especially Chinese, will be affected in the outside districts, and numerous Japanese in Honolulu, will also determine their careers as liquor men.

The total number of licenses issued today in the Territory is 264, which includes all classes, third, fourth and fifth, and two second class licenses.
There are no first-class licenses, which are issued only to distilleries. Among the different islands these licenses are divided as follows: Oahu, Honolulu 101, outside districts 22; Hawaii 62, Maui and Molokai 40, Kauai 25.

The number held by citizens is 145, by aliens 119. In the different districts the division runs as follows: Honolulu, citizens 65, aliens 50; Oahu country districts, citizens 30, aliens 32; Maui and Molokai, citizens 21, aliens 19; Kauai, citizens 13, aliens 10.

JAPANESE WAR NEWS.

Japanese war news now comes from New York instead of Honolulu. The Japs are working their war and naval supply plants overtime; they are keeping the lid closed tight on what they are doing, barring out of the yards all but the most trustworthy Japs. Thus we see again the press bureau of the anti-Jap, pro Jap-exclusion organization at its work.

NERVOUS HEADACHE.

You are tired, nervous; your brain is overworked—and your head aches. Dr.
Miles' Anti-Pain Pills act gently on the nerves, soothing and allaying the irritation which causes the pain in your head, and in a few moments you are entirely cured. 25 doses, 25c. Never sold in bulk.

AIRSHIP AND SMUGGLING.

If the airship becomes a practical means of transportation the industry of smuggling will enter upon a career of unexamined prosperity.

BALDWIN SAYS KAU FLOW HAS STOPPED

SURVEYOR VISITED THE FLOWS ON MAUNA LOA—SAYS SOURCE IS HIGH ON MOUNTAIN.

HILO, January 22.—Surveyor Baldwin reached town this afternoon. He says the Kau lava flow has stopped.
The Kona flow was much bigger night before last. Today reports state that the flow is less.

Baldwin says that probably about a thousand feet of the government road is covered with lava. He believes the source is very high up on the slopes of Mauna Loa. Residents of the locality say they think the outbreak is very near the top.

Reports are conflicting as to the number of flows due to the different view-points. All are branches of one.
No flow as yet has reached the sea.
Kilauea activity has increased more.
The bottom of the pit of Halemaunau is now a lake of rising molten lava.

Surveyor Baldwin telephones that the flow towards Kona has crossed the government road at Kapua and is still flowing.

STEVENSON'S GIFT TO MISS ANNIE IDE

THE DOCUMENT BY WHICH HE GAVE HIS BIRTHDAYS TO MISS ANNIE H. IDE.

Miss Annie H. Ide who is not the wife of Congressman Bourke Cock-ran of New York, is a daughter of Gov.
Gen. Henry Ide of the Philippines. Gen.
Ide was the commissioner at Samoa some fifteen years ago, while Robert Louis Stevenson resided there.

Miss Ide complained to Stevenson that she had been born on Christmas day, and was defrauded of her right to have a very own birthday.

Thereupon Stevenson wrote the following letter the original of which is treasured by Miss Ide:

"Vailima, Samoa, June 15, 1891.
"Dear Mr. Ide: Herewith please find the document which I trust will prove sufficient in law. It seems to me very attractive in its eclecticism: Scots, English and Roman law phrases are all indifferent introduced, and a quotation from the works of Hayek Bailey can hardly fail to attract the indulgences of the bench. Yours very truly,

"ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON." I, Robert Louis Stevenson, advocate of the Scots bar, author of "The Master of Ballantrae" and "Moral Emblems," struck civil engineer, noble owner and patentee of the palace and plantation known as Vailima, in the Island of Upolu, Samoa, a British subject, being in sound mind and pretty well, I thank you, in body.

In consideration that Miss Annie H.
Ide, daughter of H. C. Ide, in the town of St. Johnsbury, in the county of Caledonia, in the state of Vermont, United States of America, was born, out of all reason, upon Christmas day, and is therefore out of all justice denied the consolation and profit of a proper birthday.

And considering that I the said Robert Louis Stevenson, have attained an age when we never mention it, and that I have now no further use for a birthday of any description;

And in consideration that I have met H. C. Ide, the father of the said Annie H. Ide and found him about as white a land commissioner as I require;

Have transferred, and do hereby transfer, to the said Annie H. Ide all and whole my rights and privileges in the 19th day of November, formerly my birthday, now hereby, and henceforth, the birthday of the said Annie H. Ide, to have, hold, exercise and enjoy the same in the customary manner, by the sporting of fine raiment, eating of rich meats and receipt of gifts, compliments and copies of verse, according to the manner of our ancestors;

And I direct that said Annie H. Ide add to the said name of Annie H. Ide the name Louisa—at least in private—and I charge her to use my said birthday, with moderation and humanity, et tamquam bona filia familia, the said birthday not being so young as it once was, and having carried me in a very satisfactory manner since I can remember.

And in case the said Annie H. Ide shall neglect or contravene either of the above conditions, I hereby revoke the donation and transfer my rights to the said birthday to the president of the United States of America for the time being.

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this 19th day of June in the year of grace 1891. (Seal.)

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

Witness Harold Watts.

KINDLY CRITIC.

Biggs—"Have you read Clipp's new novel?"
Diggs—"Yes."
Biggs—"Is it historical or classical?" Diggs—"I'm not quite sure which it is, but nearly all the epigrams are to be found in ancient history."

"Stop that, Tommy!" cried his mother. "How often have I told you not to pull that poor cat's tail?"
"Give it up," replied the bad boy. "I never tried to keep count."—Philadel-
